

Opportunities for Adult Small Groups to Serve Others

With local mission partners:

Mission Adelante is an urban mission to Latino immigrants and Bhutanese refugees in Kansas City, Kansas. Their mission is to win hearts to Christ by meeting the felt needs of immigrants in their surrounding neighborhood through ESL courses, home repairs, children's activities, and authentic community. In tandem, they seek to disciple relationally and mobilize individuals to lead and serve, toward the end of growing a thriving network of reproducing house churches that impacts the community.

- Adelante Thrift is an exciting component of Mission Adelante's strategy for community transformation with volunteer opportunities nearly every day of the week (Monday - Saturday, 9am-7pm) that fit groups of various sizes and types. Kids and youth are welcome to serve alongside adults to sort and price clothing, stock merchandise and more. To sign-up your small group, fill-out this interest form and staff will follow up with you.

Freedom Fire desires to see God transform lives; specifically the lives of those living in the urban core of Kansas City, Missouri. They are dedicated to equipping the young people of the inner city to guide their community spiritually, economically, and socially. They host lots of opportunities that are designed to facilitate sharing the gospel, building relationships, working together for reconciliation, and building bridges between the suburban and urban communities.

- Friday Night Outreach is designed for kids and youth. Small Groups are invited to bring the meal, assist with games and more. To volunteer or get more information email Josh Timian at joshuatimian@gmail.com.
- Provide a meal with Freedom Covenant Church, whose congregation is over 60% homeless, on a Sunday. To volunteer or get more information email Kevin Cacy at kevin@freedomfire.org.
- Provide a helping hand with property projects on Saturdays at Freedom Fire or at Camp Shalom (summers only) located an hour south of Kansas City. Skilled and unskilled help is needed. To volunteer or get more information email Kevin Cacy at kevin@freedomfire.org.

Below are a variety of ways to serve with Hillcrest's local ministry partners (note: these options are for individuals, but some can be for groups):
